What can the transport sector do to make COP21 in Paris a success?

Media Centre, Level 0

Wednesday, May 27, 2015, 16:00 - 16:45

The role of the transport sector is critical in limiting climate change. This press conference will present plans to accelerate implementation of climate commitments in the run-up to the Paris COP21 climate negotiations in December. The initiator is the “Paris Process on Mobility and Climate” (PPMC), a new platform of over 150 transport organisations. With Alain Flausch (International Public Transport Association); Jean Pierre Loubinoux (International Union of Railways); Patrick Oliva (Michelin); Cornie Huizenga (Partnership on Sustainable Low-Carbon Transport, SLoCat)
